The Rules of Eling Sailing Club

SECTION 1 NAME AND OBJECTIVES

1.1 Name of the Club

The name of the Club shall be "ELING SAILING CLUB" hereinafter referred to in these rules as "the Club".

1.2 Objectives

The object for which the Club is formed is to promote and facilitate the sport of yachting and also to provide social and other facilities for members as may from time to time be determined. To encourage youth to learn and participate in this sport.

Where reasonable, the club undertakes a commitment to integrate disabled persons into the sport of sailing.

SECTION 2 OFFICERS & GENERAL COMMITTEE

2.1 Officers of The Club

The Officers of the Club, hereinafter referred to as "the Officers", shall be Full or Family members of the Club and shall consist of a Commodore, a Vice - Commodore, a Rear Commodore, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

All flag and honorary officers shall be elected annually at the Annual General Meeting (AGM). All shall be eligible for re-election, excepting a flag officer having completed three years in any one rank shall not be eligible for re-election to that same rank until at least one year has elapsed.

2.2 Constitution

The Management Committee, herein referred to as "the Committee", shall consist of the Officers, Mooring Master, Sailing Secretary, Registered Training Establishment Principal, Bar Secretary, Safety Officer, General Member, Publicity Secretary, Social Secretary, Maintenance Secretary and Membership Secretary elected at the Annual General Meeting each year, to hold office until the termination of the next following Annual General Meeting.

2.3 Candidates for Election to the Committee

Candidates for election to the Committee not being Flag Officers of the Club shall be those members of the retiring Committee eligible to offer themselves for re-election. Full or Family members over the age of eighteen whose nominations duly proposed and seconded in writing by Full or Family members of the Club with their written consent shall have been received by the Secretary at least sixteen days before the date of the Annual General Meeting in each year. Such nominations, together with the names of the Proposer and Secunder shall be posted on the nominations board at least fourteen days before the date of the Annual General Meeting.

2.4 Election to the Committee

If the number of candidates for election to the Committee is greater than the number of vacancies to be filled, then there shall be a secret ballot.

2.5 No Contest for Committee Membership

If the number of candidates for election to the Committee is equal to, or less for than, the number of vacancies to be filled, then all candidates shall elected to the

The Rules of Eling Sailing Club

Committee by a show of hands, if a simple majority of those Membership present at the Annual General Meeting, and entitled to vote, vote in favour of such election.

2.6 Equality of Votes for Committee

In the event of a ballot for election for any Committee position resulting in a tie, there shall be a re-vote. If there is still a tie the issue will be decided by lot.

2.7 Election of Non-Committee Positions

The Club members present and entitled to vote at the Annual General shall also elect club members to the following positions:- Bar Staff Committee Organiser & Cleaning Organiser, using the voting procedures set out in rules 2.3, 2.4, 2.5 and 2.6. Such persons will hold office until the termination of the next following Annual General Meeting.

Bar Staff Organiser and Cleaning Organiser will not form part of the Committee. All vacancies on sub-committees shall be displayed for 14 days in the clubhouse and applicants given the opportunity to apply before a decision on replacement is made.

2.8 Committee Vacancies

If, for any reason, a casual vacancy on the Committee or for any non committee post or sub committee post, shall occur, the Committee shall advertise the vacant position to the Club members and may co-opt a Full or Family member from the applicants to fill such a vacancy until the next Annual General Meeting. Voting on such an appointment by the Committee shall be in accordance with rule 2.11.

2.9 Retiring Commodore

Details of electing new Club members are dealt with in rules 6.1 to 6.6 inclusive. This rule does not apply to Temporary Members.

5.4 Changes of Membership Details

The Committee must sanction any changes of membership details before the Membership Register is altered.

5.5 Entitlement to Vote

All fully paid members aged eighteen or over and Honorary Members, not including a Temporary Member or a Probationary Member, shall have the power to vote at all meetings of the Club. Other rights and privileges and obligations of members are defined in the bylaws of the Club.

5.6 Retirement of a Member

A Club member desirous of retiring from membership shall give notice, in writing, to the Secretary before the last day of February and shall not then be liable to pay the Subscription Fee for the following year. Upon re-application by a past member the joining fee will be waived if they are returning within 5 years, if returning after this period then a joining fee will have to be paid in line with current fees.

5.7 Rights of Candidates for Membership

Candidates for membership shall have no privilege whatsoever in relation to the use of the Club, its premises or its facilities.

5.8 Probationary Members

Probationary members will pay the full Joining fee plus a full year's single or family membership subscription. After the probationary period of one year, probationary members will be considered by the Subscription committee for full membership and if successful, will be required to pay the appropriate membership fee pro-rata for the remaining period of the year. Thereafter all full members pay their membership fees on the first day of April in each year.

5.9 Membership Joining & Subscription Fees

The Treasurer shall each year propose to the Club members at the Annual General Meeting, the rate of Joining Fee & Subscription Fees for each category of membership. Any proposed changes shall be approved by a simple majority of those present and entitled to vote and shall become operative on the first day of April in the year following.

The Rules of Eling Sailing Club

The current rate of Joining Fee and Subscription Fee shall be prominently displayed in the Club premises

Members requiring club moorings shall also make the an annual payment of such a sum as the Committee shall from time to time prescribe and which is ratified by vote at the Annual General Meeting. Such payment shall entitle a Club member to moor his or her boat on the water controlled by the Club or occupies a space in the Club's boat park.

5.10 Payment of Subscriptions & Fees

All Subscription Fees and annual mooring fees are due for payment on the 1st April and are subject to resolutions made at any Annual General Meeting. All other fees i.e. Crane Fee, Pound Storage, Power Hose, etc. will be paid for on request.

5.11 Arrears

A Club member whose fees are more than one month overdue shall be deemed to be in arrears. A letter shall notify the Club member that he/she is in arrears and his/her name shall be displayed in the Clubhouse. No member whose fees are more than one month in arrears may use any of the Club facilities or enter any Club event. The Committee shall have the discretion to accept payments by instalments from members with genuine hardship. If a member fails to adhere to the exact dates and payments on the agreed schedule they shall be deemed to be in arrears.

5.12 Termination of Membership

The Committee may terminate, without notice being given, the membership of any member whose annual subscription and other fees are more than two months in arrears. The Committee may, at its discretion, reinstate such a member upon payment of arrears.

5.13 Change of Address

Every Club member shall furnish the Secretary with an up-to-date address, which shall be recorded in the Register of Members, and any notice sent to such address shall be considered to be delivered for the purpose of this rule.

5.14 Re-instatement of Members

When any category of membership is sought by an ex member who has:-

1. been expelled from the Club under section 7 (conduct of members);
2. resigned from the Club under rule 7.2;
3. tendered their resignation as part of an agreement to resolve a dispute with an individual member or group of members;

The election to the Club will be decided by a vote of members at a General Meeting of the Club, where a minimum of one months notice has been sent to the general membership.

This would only apply to people leaving after a dispute as defined above and not to people who had not paid their fees.

SECTION 6. ELECTION OF MEMBERS

6.1 New Members

All candidates for membership, except for cadets, will serve, if elected by the

The Rules of Eling Sailing Club

Committee under Rule 6.2, a probationary year. At the end of that year their application will be re-presented to the Committee to be considered for election as a Full or Family Member.

6.2 Election to Membership

Upon receipt of an application for all types of membership, the Membership Secretary shall enter such application in a Register of Candidates and shall cause the applicant's name to be prominently displayed in the Club premises for at least fourteen days before the meeting of the Committee at which such application for membership shall be considered.

The election of all classes of members is vested in the Committee and shall be a simple majority vote of those on the Committee. The Membership Secretary shall inform each candidate in writing of the candidate's election or non-election. The Membership Secretary shall furnish an elected candidate with a copy of the Rules and Bylaws of the Club and make request for such payments as are necessary.

6.3 Payment of Fees Upon Election

Upon election, a candidate shall pay, within one calendar month, such joining and other fees as shall be requested. In default of such payment, the election shall be void unless sufficient cause for delay is provided.

SECTION 7. CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

7.1 Undertaking to comply with the rules

Every member, upon election and thereafter, is deemed to have notice of, and to have undertaken to comply with rules and the current Bylaws and Regulations of the Club. Any refusal or neglect to do so, or any conduct that, in the opinion of the Committee, is either unworthy of a Club member or otherwise injurious to the interests of the Club shall render a Club member liable to disciplinary procedures and possible expulsion from the Club.

7.2 Expulsion of Members

The Committee shall handle all matters of discipline. PROVIDED THAT, before expelling a Club member, the Committee shall call upon such a member for a written explanation of the member's conduct and shall give the member full opportunity of making explanation to the Committee, or of resigning.

A resolution to expel a Club member shall be carried by a two thirds majority of a minimum of 80% of the members of the Committee.

Should the member being expelled be part of a family membership then the remaining people from that membership will remain members for that year and thereafter be changed to the appropriate class of membership. Expelled members will not be allowed to visit the club as guests.

7.3 Appeals

Any member shall have the right of appeal to the membership of the Club in a General Meeting and may, within 14 days of occurrence of the action, exercise the right of appeal by written notice to Secretary. The General Committee shall then convene a General Meeting of the membership within one month to consider the matter and a vote shall be taken to decide if the complaint is valid or if the member shall be reinstated from the date of expulsion, if it is an expulsion matter

The Rules of Eling Sailing Club

The appeal shall be decided by a simple majority of members present and entitled to vote.

7.4 Guests in the Club

Club members shall enter the names of all guests in the Visitor's Book. Not more than three guests may be introduced by a member in any one day.

7.5 Damage to Club Property

A member shall not knowingly remove, injure, destroy or damage any property of the club and shall make restitution for the same if called upon to do so by the Committee or by the Secretary upon the instructions of the Committee.

7.6 Exhibiting of Notices

A member shall not cause any communication in whatever form to be exhibited on Club notice boards or premises without the permission of the Secretary.

7.7 Settlement

A Club member shall settle any indebtedness for refreshment or otherwise before leaving the Club premises, or in accordance with any Bylaw relating to the settlement of such indebtedness.

7.8 Complaints

Complaints of any nature relating to the management of the Club premises shall be addressed in writing to the Secretary. Under no circumstances shall any Club member personally reprimand another Club member or servant of the Club. All letters of complaint shall be addressed to the Secretary who shall promptly acknowledge such letter.

7.9 Members of Other RYA Clubs

A member of any club affiliated to the Royal Yachting Association, a list thereof is published by the said Association, may be authorised to use the premises of the Club by any member of the Committee. Such authorisation shall specify between which dates not being more than fourteen days apart the said person may so use the Club premises.

7.10 Visiting Competitors

Any person who is a competitor or crewmember in any race sponsored by or on behalf of the Club is entitled to the use of the Club premises within a period of 24 hours before and after the race in which they are competing.

7.11 Power to Expel Those Admitted under Rules 7.9 & 7.10.

The Secretary, or any other person who has received the authority of two members of the Committee, may expel, Under Rule 7.9, temporarily or permanently, any person who has the right to the use of the Club's premises only under rules 7.9 & 7.10

7.12 Members Personal Data

Membership of the Club and acceptance of these rules by the member will be deemed to constitute consent to the holding of relevant personal data for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998.

SECTION 8. LIMITATION OF CLUB LIABILITY

The Rules of Eling Sailing Club

8.1 Limitation of Club Liability

Club members, their guests and visitors are bound by the following Rule which shall also be exhibited in a prominent place within the Club premises:-

Members of the Club, their guests or visitors may use the Club premises, and any other facilities of the Club, entirely at their own risk and impliedly accept:-

- (a) The Club will not accept any liability for any damage to or loss of property belonging to Club members, their guests or visitors to the Club.
- (b) The Club will not accept any liability of personal injury arising out of the use of the Club premises, any other facilities of the Club either sustained by Club members, their guests or visitors or caused by the said members, guests or visitors whether or not such damage or injury could have been attributed to or was occasioned by the neglect, default or negligence of any of them, the Officers, Committee or servants of the Club.

SECTION 9. PURCHASE AND SUPPLY OF EXCISABLE GOODS

9.1 Purchase And Supply of Excisable Goods

The purchase for the Club of excisable goods and the supply of the same upon Club premises shall be exclusively and solely under the control of the Committee, or of a special Sub-Committee appointed by the Committee.

Intoxicating liquor may only be sold for consumption on the Club premises to persons over the age of eighteen who are entitled to the use of the Club premises in pursuance of the Rules, Bylaws and Regulations for the time being in force. No Club member under the age of eighteen may purchase or attempt to purchase intoxicating liquor within the Club premises.

9.2 Hours of Sale of Excisable Goods

Subject to the requirements of the licensing authorities, the Committee shall cause the Club bar to be opened at convenient times and such times shall be prominently exhibited in the Club premises for the sale of excisable goods to persons who are entitled to the use of the premises of the Club in pursuance of these rules except to those Club members as aforesaid PROVIDED THAT visitors' names and addresses and the name of their introducer shall have been entered in the Visitor's Book upon entry to Club premises.

9.3 Profits from the Sale of Excisable Goods

No person shall take a commission, percentage or other such payment in connection with the purchase of excisable goods for the Club. Any profit deriving from the sale of such goods shall, after deduction of the costs of providing such goods for the benefit of the Club, be applied to the provision of additional amenities or the purchase of property to be held in trust for the benefit of the Club.

9.4 Accounts Relating to Excisable Goods

Proper accounts of all purchases and receipts shall be kept and presented at the Annual General Meeting in each year and such information as the Secretary or the Independent Accountant may require shall be furnished to enable any statutory return or statement and the payment of excise or other duty or tax to be made.

9.5 Disclosure of Accounting Information

The accounts mentioned in 9.4 shall be made available for any member to review

The Rules of Eling Sailing Club

at their own expense and time. Such a request must be made in writing to the Club Secretary who shall supply (furnish) that member with the accounts within 31-days of receiving the request.

SECTION 10. TRUSTEES

10.1 Trustees, Number and Terms of Reference

There shall be at least four Trustees of the Club who shall be appointed from time to time as necessary by the Committee from among Full, Family or Honorary Members who are willing to be so appointed. Trustees shall hold office during their lifetime so long as they remain members of the Club, or until they shall resign, by notice in writing given to the Committee.
